

Connecticut Women Artists – Member Services ( Directory Listing)

The web site for Connecticut Women Artists is proud to offer membership to hundreds of local artists. Do you realize that the more times your name appears in an internet search or your web site is linked by other websites, the more often internet search engines will recognize you? This also results in more opportunities for galleries, media, collectors, and curators to see and recognize your name and work ; as well as to become more recognizable to a world market. For more information on joining the member Artists Directory and/or having your own gallery on the Featured Artists page follow the instructions below by sending the requested information for either option to the webmaster.
