

How to become a member of CWA - The CWA Annual Portfolio Review

Each year, CWA invites women artists from Connecticut to submit samples of their work for consideration for membership. The Annual Portfolio Review is an anonymous jurying process during which a jury of CWA Council members will consider your work for admission, using a set of objective criteria. All fine art media are acceptable, including drawing, painting (and its many media), photography (still, film, video, and other), sculpture (and its many media, including installation), architecture, printmaking (and its many media), mixed media, fiber art, and the applied arts when presented as fine art.

Submissions begin on August 1. The deadline for receipt of all submissions is August 31 each year. Please submit portfolios well in advance of the deadline. Candidates are notified by their email provided on the contact sheet in September.

Materials for Consideration

- Contact Sheet (first & last names, phone number, email address & mailing address)
- 5 JPEG files. Name of each file should be in the format: title_medium_size.jpg•Images should be 1920 pixels at 72 dpi on the longest side•Artist's Statement (maximum 1 page)
- A brief resume
- Website URL (optional)
- The Annual Portfolio Review registration fee of $25.00, payable via PayPal
- The annual membership fee of $42.00 for full membership payable via PayPal or by check when membership is confirmed by the Portfolio Review Committee.
Membership payment applies to the remainder of the year in which the artist is elected and the following year.
- Email all materials including images, contact sheet, artist's statement and resume to the Co-President at CWAPres2021@gmail.com
- Acceptable file formats: images: JPEG files only. Resumes and statement: DOC and PDF files.